

System Requirements

Review this Microsoft Forefront Threat Management Gateway 2010 information to make sure you have the required hardware and software to run the product.

Forefront Threat Management Gateway 2010 Standard Edition

Provided below are the minimum and recommended system configuration requirements to use Forefront Threat Management Gateway 2010 Standard Edition.

System Component	Minimum Requirements	Recommended Requirements
Operating System	Windows Server 2008 SP2 (64-bit) or Windows Server 2008 R2	Windows Server 2008 SP2 (64-bit) or Windows Server 2008 R2
Processor Type	64-bit	64-bit
Processor Cores	2	4
Memory	2 GB	4 GB
Disk Space	2.5 GB of available hard disk space. This is exclusive of hard disk space that you want to use for caching or for temporarily storing files during malware inspection	2.5 GB of available hard disk space. This is exclusive of hard disk space that you want to use for caching or for temporarily storing files during malware inspection
Disks	One local hard disk partition that is formatted with the NTFS file system	Two local hard disk partition that is formatted with the NTFS file system. One disk for system and TMG logging, and one for caching and malware inspection
Network	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• One network adapter that is compatible with the computer's operating system, for communication with the Internal network.• An additional network adapter for each network connected to the Forefront TMG server.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• One network adapter that is compatible with the computer's operating system, for communication with the Internal network.• An additional network adapter for each network connected to the Forefront TMG server.

